WHILE you’re AWAY

If you must leave the University, please review the following information. This guide will help you navigate tasks you should complete upon departure from the University. It also includes helpful contacts and information that will help facilitate your return to Carolina.

All students leaving the University should...

☐ CONNECT CAROLINA
Address any checklist items (on your to-do list) or holds on your account in ConnectCarolina.

☐ UNIVERSITY CASHIER
Call the University Cashier to review the billing schedule and to settle your financial accounts. The University Cashier’s Office, 2215 SASB North, cashier.unc.edu, or 919-962-1368.

☐ SCHOLARSHIPS and STUDENT AID
Discuss how withdrawal from school may affect your current and future financial aid eligibility, and how to reapply for aid if you are planning to return at a later date. For more information on financial aid policies, please visit studentaid.unc.edu or call 919-962-8396.

☐ DEPARTMENT of HOUSING and RESIDENTIAL EDUCATION
Please contact your Resident Advisor to schedule a move-out inspection, and return your key(s) to the community office. Students leaving at any point during the semester must vacate their room within 48 hours of withdrawing. For more information, please visit housing.unc.edu or 919-962-5401.

☐ READMISSIONS
Any student who withdraws or fails to complete a semester and wishes to re-enroll as a regular, full-time student must reapply for admission. Student leaving the University with an academic deficiency must restore their eligibility and complete the application at admissions.unc.edu/Apply/Readmission_Students.

☐ ONE CARD OFFICE
Discontinue your meal plan and access to on-campus facilities at onecard.unc.edu, or 919-962-8024.

☐ PARKING SERVICES
Return your parking permit and pay any outstanding parking citations. For more information, please visit www.dps.unc.edu or call 919-962-3951.

☐ ACADEMIC ADVISING PROGRAM
Discuss your academic eligibility and options for future academic study at advising.unc.edu or 919-966-5116.

Additional checklist items that may apply to you...

☐ Graduate and Professional students should contact their respective Student Affairs offices or the Graduate School for information related to policies and procedures for time away from the University.

☐ Do you have any books, materials or equipment borrowed from the campus libraries or recreation facilities? Go to www.lib.unc.edu to find the appropriate library contact information.

☐ Do you receive Veterans Administration educational benefits? Contact the VA Office, Suite 3100 SASB North, registrar.unc.edu/AcademicServices/VeteranAffairs.

☐ Contact Campus Health Services to discuss options for treatment and care as necessary. Visit campushealth.unc.edu.
If you must leave the University for a Medical Emergency, please secure documentation from your health care professional. If you do not complete coursework, and become Ineligible, you may have to submit an appeal to return to campus. Having documentation of your medical emergency will help with this process. To discuss an academic appeal, contact the Academic Advising Program.

Please note:

Students receiving a psychological withdrawal from Counseling & Wellness Services must receive clearance from Counseling & Wellness Services prior to reenrollment. To schedule a clearance appointment, please call 919-966-3658.

If you are leaving the University due to other than “Good Academic Standing,” please read the following information carefully and contact the Academic Advising Program or Undergraduate Retention with questions.

Academic Eligibility

You must have an academic status of Eligible – In Good Standing or Eligible – On Academic Probation to return to campus for full-time study during a fall or spring semester. A student leaving the University with an academic status of Ineligible must restore their eligibility, and complete the readmission application.

If the academic ineligibility is due to an insufficient grade-point average, the student must raise their cumulative GPA by enrolling in additional UNC-Chapel Hill courses to restore. Students with an academic status of Ineligible or Ineligible – Pending may only attend summer school or take Carolina Courses Online.

Students who complete summer courses on campus with satisfactory grades may be eligible to continue their studies at UNC without further action. For more information on remaining in “Good Standing,” please visit studentsuccess.unc.edu/content/goodstanding.

Students who wish to return to the University need to apply for readmission if they have not been enrolled in classes, withdrew from classes, or were withdrawn from those classes. Students leaving the University not in “Good Academic Standing” must restore their eligibility and complete the application at admissions.unc.edu/Apply/Readmission_Students.

A student leaving the University for medical, psychological or disciplinary reasons must complete the readmission application and have clearance from either Counseling & Wellness Services or the Office of the Dean of Students as appropriate before being readmitted.

To learn more about academic eligibility as well as resources the University offers to promote student success, please visit studentsuccess.unc.edu.

It is important to check your eligibility status in ConnectCarolina at the end of each academic term. If you have a question, please contact the Academic Advising Program or Undergraduate Retention.

Academic Appeals Process

A student with an academic status of Ineligible may be permitted to return to the University through the academic appeals process. Contact the Academic Advising Program for more information.

Medical EMERGENCIES

If you must leave the University for a Medical Emergency, please secure documentation from your health care professional. If you do not complete coursework, and become Ineligible, you may have to submit an appeal to return to campus. Having documentation of your medical emergency will help with this process. To discuss an academic appeal, contact the Academic Advising Program.

Please note: Students receiving a psychological withdrawal from Counseling & Wellness Services must receive clearance from Counseling & Wellness Services prior to reenrollment. To schedule a clearance appointment, please call 919-966-3658.

READMISSIONS

Students who wish to return to the University need to apply for readmission if they have not been enrolled in classes, withdrew from classes, or were withdrawn from those classes. Students leaving the University not in “Good Academic Standing” must restore their eligibility and complete the application at admissions.unc.edu/Apply/Readmission_Students.

A student leaving the University for medical, psychological or disciplinary reasons must complete the readmission application and have clearance from either Counseling & Wellness Services or the Office of the Dean of Students as appropriate before being readmitted.
