

Brown Bag Lunch Series on
THE CROSSROADS OF STUDENT SUCCESS: ACADEMICS, WELLNESS AND ENGAGEMENT
Fall 2012 Schedule

September 14th Expecting Mothers and Undergraduate Parenthood with Ilana Krakauer, Psychologist, Counseling and Wellness Services, and Kristin Bradbury, Staff, Academic Advising
12 noon – 1:30 p.m. Location: Graham Memorial 011

Negotiating undergraduate student success and parenthood is a unique challenge. What are the resources on campus for expecting mothers and new parents? How can faculty, staff, advisors, and mentors best support these students at Carolina? This session will explore these questions as well as provide insight into the experiences of student-parents at Carolina.

October 19th Men's Mental Health: Relationships, Masculinity, and Help Seeking Behaviors with Erik Gustke, Psychiatrist, and Kevin Shepard, Psychologist, Counseling and Wellness Services 12 noon – 1:30 p.m. Location: Steele Conference Room

Are males less likely to ask for help than females? How do help seeking behaviors influence academic achievement and campus engagement? This session will explore relationship building among undergraduate males as well as themes of masculinity and help seeking relevant to undergraduate student success.

November 16th Money Matters: Finances, Stress, and the Impact on Student Life with Tony Patterson, Senior Associate Director, Carolina Union
12 noon – 1:30 p.m. Location: Graham Memorial, 212NEW LOCATION

Stress is overwhelming today's students before they even step foot on campus. Regardless of socioeconomic status, students are concerned with college costs, living expenses and the prospects of finding a career that makes the investment "pay off." Join us for an interactive discussion about how financial literacy (or the lack of it) is playing a significant role in persistence and what we can do to address the problem.

December 14th Academic Integrity
with Jim Leloudis, Professor of History, Associate Dean for Honors, Director, The James M. Johnston Center for Undergraduate Excellence
12 noon – 1:30 p.m. Location: Graham Memorial 011

Academic honesty, personal integrity, and responsible citizenship are cornerstones of the public research university. Academic integrity is essential to all academic work and it is a complex issue. This session will explore questions such as: How do undergraduates learn about academic integrity? What does it mean for undergraduates to be a member of a community of scholars? What programs and supports does Carolina offer to educate undergraduates about academic integrity?
