ASSIGNMENT ANALYSIS

Student: __________________________  Semester/Course: __________________________

Course: __________________________  Due Date: __________________________

Briefly describe your next assignment: ____________________________________________

What are the professor’s requirements or expectations for this assignment?

1. __________________________________________

2. __________________________________________

3. __________________________________________

4. __________________________________________

5. __________________________________________

What materials do you need to complete this assignment (e.g., handouts, lecture slides, notes, textbook, etc.)?

1. __________________________________________

2. __________________________________________

3. __________________________________________

4. __________________________________________

5. __________________________________________
What chapters/lectures do you need to review for this assignment?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

What are the key concepts/topics/ideas do you need to include?

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

What part of this assignment will be most challenging for you?

- I am not motivated.
- I do not like the subject/topic.
- I have trouble organizing myself and managing my time.
- I have trouble synthesizing ideas and explaining them in a clear way.
- I have trouble remembering what was taught in class.
- I am confused about the assignment.
- Other __________________________________________________________

What strategies will you use to complete the assignment and overcome those challenges? ____________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________