

Brown Bag Lunch Series on
THE CROSSROADS OF ACADEMICS AND COLLEGE STUDENT MENTAL HEALTH
Spring 2009 Schedule

- February 6th The Financial Crisis and Its Impact on Student Mental Health and Academic Performance with Tabatha Turner, Associate Director, Scholarships and Student Aid
- How is the economy affecting undergraduate students? What can faculty, staff and administrators do to help students during this historic financial crisis? This discussion will focus on the unique challenges students are facing in this time of economic uncertainty. Participants will be invited to share the ways in which they have seen the financial crisis influence student behaviors and decisions.
- March 20th Bullying, Cyberstalking and Juicy Campus
with Dottie Bernholz, Director, Student Legal Services and Melinda Manning, Assistant Dean of Students
- College student mental health and academic success are influenced by relationships both inside and outside of the classroom as well as online. Does bullying happen in college? What is Juicy Campus and who cares about it? What is cyberstalking? These questions and more will be addressed in this discussion.
- April 17th Campus Ministries
with Rev. Tambria E. Lee from The Chapel of the Cross
- In this session, we will explore ways to help students with diverse religious, political and cultural views harmoniously coexist on campus.
- May 15th Working with International Students with Preeti Vidwans, Psychologist, and Satoko Kimpara, Pre-doctoral Intern, from Counseling and Wellness Services
- Preeti Vidwans and Satoko Kimpara co-lead a support group for International students. They will discuss the needs and challenges of international students.

All lunches are from noon to 1:30 in Graham Memorial 011.

Bring a friend!

For further information or requests for future topics, contact:

Cynthia Demetriou, Office of Undergraduate Education, cyndem@email.unc.edu
Alice Dawson, Academic Advising, adawson@email.unc.edu
Amy Schmitz-Sciborski, Counseling and Wellness Services, schmitzs@email.unc.edu