Using Interest Convergence to Make Cultural Shifts in Student Success

In the final installment of the Equity and Student Success Seminar Series, Dr. Gloria Ladson Billings will focus on the Critical Race Theory (CRT) tenet of "Interest Convergence." The seminar will provide space for participants to ask questions, learn strategies and resources to advance cultural shifts, and understand ways in which structural disparities are created and maintained within the higher education enterprise.

Dr. Ladson-Billings is the Kellner Family Chair in Urban Education and is faculty affiliate in the Departments of Educational Policy Studies and Afro American Studies at the University of Wisconsin-Madison. She is a thought leader in the application of Critical Race Theory (CRT) to education.
